SOCIOLOGY

Effective September 1, 2013 the Certificate in Community Development be revised.

CERTIFICATE IN COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

The Certificate in Community Development is offered through the Department of Sociology Division of Sociology and Family Studies and at Brescia University College. ~~Students in professional programs may pursue the Certificate concurrently with their degree program. All Community Development courses may count towards the student's undergraduate program.~~ This program is comprised of required courses, including a practicum course, equivalent to three courses, and two optional courses to be selected from an approved interdisciplinary list.

Admission Requirements

Completion of Sociology 1020 or 1021E, with an average of at least 60% in the course. ~~It is not available to students registered in New Academic Choices.~~

To be admitted into the Certificate in Community Development, the student is required to complete and submit a Community Development application form by April 15 before the beginning of the program. Enrolment in this program is limited. Meeting the minimum requirements does not guarantee that applicants will be admitted.

~~Priority will be given to students already registered at Brescia.~~ This certificate is not available to students who have a major in Community Development or an Honor's Specialization in Community Development in a Global Context. If a course in the Certificate program is waived by the department on the basis of prior course work, another Community Development course will have to be taken (chosen in consultation with Community Development faculty) so that the total number of course credits is 3.0.

Progression Requirements

Students must obtain an average of 70% in the required courses, with no course under 60%.

Required Courses
