KINGS UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

CHILDHOOD AND SOCIAL INSTITUTIONS

Effective September 1, 2015, the following courses be introduced.

Childhood and Social Institutions 2220F/G – Lifeworld Childhoods

This course examines the emerging understanding of inter- and intra-generational relationships, citizenship, participation, rights, responsibilities, experiential age, and fairness constructed by children during their everyday play and work engagements with peers and adults in families, local communities, media, technology, and consumer environments.

Pre or Co-requisite(s): Childhood and Social Institutions 1025F/G.

3 lecture hours, 0.5 course.

(King's)

Childhood and Social Institutions 2225F/G – Systems and Childhoods

This course delineates the constructions of childhoods within various formal social institutions and the influence of such constructions on the structuring of inter-generational relationships. Systems initiatives in areas such as environmental education, learning environments, civic engagement, and child directed organizations are examined. Majority and minority world comparison are undertaken to highlight the significance of various contexts.

Pre or Co-requisite(s): Childhood and Social Institutions 1025F/G.

3 lecture hours, 0.5 course.

(King's)

Childhood and Social Institutions 2250F/G – Childhood, Society and Institutions

This course will examine the extent to which children's rights have been accepted and implemented in society today, with particular emphasis on Canada's performance with respect to child poverty, child abuse, the rights of Aboriginal children, and the delivery of health, education and legal rights.

Antirequisite(s): The former CSI 2291A/B if taken before 2015.
