FACULTY OF ARTS AND HUMANITIES

ENGLISH AND WRITING STUDIES

Effective September 1, 2014, the following courses will be withdrawn on Main Campus.

English 2042F/G: Shakespeare in Performance

English 2043F/G: Voice and Text in the Theatre

English 2400E: Dramatic Forms and Genres

Effective September 1, 2014, the following courses will be introduced. These courses will be offered by the Department of English and Writing Studies on main campus but will be taught at the Stratford Festival Theatre in Stratford, Ontario.

Theatre Studies 3206F/G: Shakespeare and Performance

An historical, theoretical, and analytical introduction to Shakespeare's plays in performance. This course focuses on specific problems related to past productions and to those in the current Stratford Festival season. Class meets for three hours a day, five afternoons a week, and includes attendance at Shakespeare productions. Summer Day only.

Antirequisite(s): the former English 2042F/G
0.5 course.

Theatre Studies 3207F/G: Voice and Text in the Theatre

A workshop in which students will experience, with simple, practical exercises, the ways in which Festival actors develop and maintain their voices and explore various aspects of the text they are performing. The class meets for three hours, four mornings a week. Taught by Stratford Festival staff. Summer Day only.

Antirequisite(s): the former English 2043F/G
Prerequisite(s): English 2041F/G or equivalent.
Corequisite(s): Theatre Studies 3206F/G.
0.5 course.

Theatre Studies 4211F/G: The Performance Archive

This course introduces students to the theory and practice of performance archives. Students will analyze primary documents and how to organize and maintain a performance archive. This course will also include field trip(s) to archival sites such as the Stratford Festival, the Grand Theatre, the Elgin Theatre and the Nightwood Theatre.

Prerequisite(s): At least 60% in 1.0 of English 1020E or 1022E or 1024E or 1035E or 1036E or both English 1027F/G and 1028F/G, or permission of the Department.
3 hours, 0.5 course

Theatre Studies 4212F/G: Theatre Talk

This course teaches students about how theatre is received and discussed in society. Topics to be discussed included performance activism, the role of the press, and the effects of social media on a production.

Prerequisite(s): At least 60% in 1.0 of English 1020E or 1022E or 1024E or 1035E or 1036E or both English 1027F/G and 1028F/G, or permission of the Department.
3 hours, 0.5 course

Theatre Studies 4213F/G: In Your Skin: Sexualities and Performance

This course examines the relationship between sexuality and performance. Students will examine play texts and performance and study such topics as drag, transgendered roles and representation, and the role of gender and sexuality in the interpretation of a text or performance.

Prerequisite(s): At least 60% in 1.0 of English 1020E or 1022E or 1024E or 1035E or 1036E or both English 1027F/G and 1028F/G, or permission of the Department.

3 hours, 0.5 course

Theatre Studies 4214F/G: Contemporary Issues in Performance Theory

Beginning in the 1950s and 60s, students will study the rise of performance studies and consider developments in the theories of performance during the latter part of the 20th century. Areas covered may include feminist performance theory, postcolonial performance theory, and queer performance theory.

Prerequisite(s): At least 60% in 1.0 of English 1020E or 1022E or 1024E or 1035E or 1036E or both English 1027F/G and 1028F/G, or permission of the Department.

3 hours, 0.5 course

Theatre Studies 4215F/G: Destination Theatre

This course provides students with the opportunity to develop their drama education more deeply through the experience of theatre abroad, in cities such as New York and London, England. Students' attendance at live performance will be complemented with daily lectures, and tours of theatres, archives, and relevant historical sites.

Prerequisite(s): At least 60% in 1.0 of English 1020E or 1022E or 1024E or 1035E or 1036E or both English 1027F/G and 1028F/G, or permission of the Department.

3 hours, 0.5 course
